William C. Coutts Now Oldest Man

William Carnegie Coutts of 72 Maple avenue became this week Andover's oldest man, according to a survey made by the Townsman following the passing of John Weeks who had held the honor for the past half year. Mr. Coutts, born July 17, 1849, edged out David Cunningham of Shawsheen road for the honor. Mr. Cunningham's birthday being December 3, 1849. Next in line is Charles Zalla of 27 Florence street.

The town's new oldest man was born in Arbroath, Scotland, and moved to France when he was four years old, his father being engaged in the flax business there. He lived in France 14 years, although part of this time was spent in school in Scotland. In 1872 he came to Andover where he was employed by the Smith and Dove Company for 45 years, retiring in 1914.

He has two daughters, Mrs. Dana Clark, with whom he makes his home, and Mrs. Robert Morrison of Detroit; two sons, David L., of Smith and Coutts Company, and William M. of Somerville, a stereotyper on the Boston Post. There are six grandchildren.

Mr. Coutts is second oldest member of the Free Church, the oldest being Mrs. Agnes Donald Gordon of Japan. He belongs to the local Masonic lodge, and is at the Square and Compass club practically every Saturday evening. Afternoons he often walks down to the library and drops into the club.

Discuss Unemployment At Republican Club

County Commissioner Frederick Butler presided over the round table discussion held at the meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club in the bank building last Thursday. Mr. Butler discussed the biennial session situation and its effect on the county commissioners' budget. Charles Bowman, Manager of the Unemployment Compensation Bureau for the Lawrence district, talked on the interesting subject of his work, answering the questions asked him by the eager Young Republicans. Bayard Tuckerman, of Beverly, who is a member of the Governor's Council, spoke and entered the discussion on the general setup of political affairs from 1921 to the present date. Mr. Tuckerman gave a resume of conditions in the country as a whole to the forty assembled members of the club, telling also of his experiences as a council member, giving inside dope on the workings of that body.

Mr. Tuckerman spoke of the present Republican platform which advocates an honest attempt to balance the budget and encourage private enterprise which he describes as the "breadwinner of the national family." He pointed out how important steps have already been taken in our state by Governor Saltonstall toward restoring employment in private industry by reducing the cost of the State Government. The efficiency of the State's employment service has also been improved in an effort to reduce unemployment.

Thomas Fallon, active vice-president of the club, presided over this enlightening meeting, calling on Irving J. Whitcomb, chairman of the activities committee, who gave a very aggressive report on future activities which have been planned to date.

Initial plans for the annual April meeting and banquet were discussed; further announcements will be made later on this affair. According to the active young officers of the organization, "This banquet will be bigger and better than last year's," which, incidentally, was a huge success.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening, March 7.

REGISTRATION TONIGHT

Over 100 names have been added to the voters' list at the two registrations to date. Tonight from 7 to 9 the Board of Registrars will meet at the Grange hall. Friday and Saturday of next week from 7 to 9 they will meet at the old school house, Ballardvale, and the

Warrant To Contain Fifty Articles

Andover's town warrant will probably again this year contain around 50 articles. One more day remains in which to file articles, 5 p.m. Friday being the deadline.

Filed this week were the following: closing of the present public dump, purchase of a brush fire truck, of a police car ($589), and police motorcycle ($462), of Hussey's pond ($1500), skating areas $500, Boutwell and Haggetts pond road water extensions $7100, Brundrett avenue extension $2350, retaining wall and sidewalk on south side of Walnut avenue below Maple avenue $950, see what action town will take regarding collection and disposal of garbage, rubbish and ashes, permitting Temple Emanuel to use as a cemetery 10 acres on the westerly side of Gould road beyond the state police barracks, water extension on Vine street $1800, and amendments to the zoning by-law published a few weeks ago in the Townsman.

This morning another article was filed asking $750 for a water extension on Dascomb road from Andover street.

Two New Exhibits At Addison Gallery

Two new exhibits will open on Saturday, February 10, at the Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips Academy: the One Picture Picasso exhibition, arranged by the Museum of Modern Art, New York; and paintings, drawings and prints by Fiske Boyd and Clare Shenehon Boyd.

The Picasso exhibition presents a single large canvas of significant importance in Picasso's development as a painter. The painting is "La Coiffure," a pre-Rose period work of about 1905, from the permanent collection of the Museum of Modern Art. It is supplemented by reproductions of other works by Picasso.

The work of Fiske Boyd and his wife, Clare Shenehon Boyd, includes landscapes of New Hampshire and New York State. Comments by the artists on each picture in the exhibition explain their aim and method, and supplement the analysis of Hopper's "Manhattan Bridge Loop" in the adjoining gallery.

Both these exhibitions as well as the Design Exhibition, will be on view until March 10.

EDITORIAL

It's Up To You

If any of the complaining that goes on every day in Andover is transcribed to the Memorial Auditorium on the night of the annual town meeting, there will be considerable discussion on the article which seeks to ascertain what the town shall do about the collection and disposal of garbage, ashes and rubbish. Another article makes one end of the problem more difficult in that it seeks to close the present public dump which has for years taken care of the disposal end of the ash and rubbish problem.

They are both problems which deserve some very serious thought, problems which should not be shunted aside. The dump situation is of direct interest to the neighbors of the dump, one of whom lives within 200 feet of the flames which quite often make the dump something of a fire peril despite the fire department's careful surveillance of the situation. The petitioners state that it is a menace to property on Dufton road, Burnham road and High streets, and there can be no disputing this claim. Nor does it help any to say that these people knew the dump was there when they moved there—for the dump keeps moving nearer them.

The other problem we all have a direct interest in. Persons moving here from out-of-town invariably express surprise that a town like Andover does not provide any public facilities for collection of garbage and rubbish. It's bad from a health standpoint, and it does not help the real estate situation. The present leave-it-up-to-you method often results in the leaving-it-by-the-side-of-the-road method. Let's do something about it.

May Ask $1500 For Bleachers

An article will probably be inserted in the warrant asking $1500 for the erection of portable bleachers at the playstead. Last year a similar request was made, the sum being $2200 at that time.

Much dissatisfaction was expressed on Thanksgiving day both by local persons and fans from North Andover at the lack of facilities for spectators at the Johnson game. This year the Methuen game is expected to attract a larger crowd. The plan is to have bleachers in sections small enough so that a group of students can move them around to the hockey rink, diamond, etc.

Railroad Honors Mr. Cunningham

A commuter for the past fifty-two years, Peter F. Cunningham of 17 Highland road was one of the fifty year Boston and Maine passengers honored by the railroad at a dinner in the Hotel Manager Monday evening.

Born at his present home on Highland road, December 22, 1870, Mr. Cunningham attended the public schools and studied at Cannon's Commercial school after he graduated from Punchard. At the age of eighteen he obtained his first job with Joseph Middleby, Jr., Inc., in Boston as a bookkeeper. He received several promotions and is now on the inside sales force. A dinner was given in his honor two years ago when he had been with the firm fifty years.

Nearly seventy, Mr. Cunningham still enjoys his walk to and from the station and looks forward to many more years of commuting.

Grand March Gains Recognition At Sophomore Dance

The Sophomore class of Punchard high school outdid the local police last Friday evening at its dance in the Memorial gym. The "kids" had something that was omitted at the "Bal de Gendarmes" held at the same place Tuesday evening—a Grand March.

At the sophomore dance, Joseph Doherty directed the grand march, while William McDonald was floor director. The other members of the faculty who contributed to the evening's enjoyment by their presence and terpsichorean accomplishments were: Mrs. Emma G. Carter, Misses Gertrude Berry, Gwen Armitage, Mary Smith and Edward C. Manning.

Don Lundgren's recording machine furnished music for the occasion. Dancing was enjoyed from 8 to 11:30, with refreshments being sold in the cafeteria during intermission.

"WILD LIFE" PICTURE SHOWN AT S. AND C. CLUB

Pictures of "Wild Life" were shown at the monthly business meeting of the Andover Square and Compass club hall last Thursday evening. Colonel Stoble, of the New Hampshire Fish and Game Commission, presented the pictures. Talkies on "South American Countries" were also seen and heard.

Two new members were admitted, with President Roland L. Luce presiding over the meeting.

A real old-fashioned chicken pie supper will be served sometime in February, with William Hatch as chairman of the committee.

CLAN AUXILIARY ENJOYS PENNY BEANO

A penny beano party was enjoyed by the members of the Clan Johnston auxiliary following their regular business meeting in the Fraternal hall last Thursday evening. A Valentine party has been planned for the February 15th meeting.

Refreshments were served by the good of the order: Mrs. Archibald Davidson, chairman; Mrs. Minnie Thompson, Mrs. Anne Renney, Mrs. Leo Muller, Miss Louise Keith, Miss Helen Ferrier, Miss Agnes Cairnie, Miss Dorothy Sutcliffe and Miss Edna Anderson.

At the business meeting of the American Legion post, held in the rooms last Thursday evening, it was voted to sponsor the American Legion Junior Baseball team again this year. All ball players up to seventeen years of age will be asked to report as soon as this project gets under way. No athletic officer has been appointed as yet.

Committee reports were also read, with Commander Garrison Holt presiding over the meeting.

The next meeting will be held in the Legion rooms on Thursday evening, February 15.

PROFESSOR TO SPEAK ON PROPAGANDA MENACE

At the next meeting of the November club, Monday, February 12, Professor Edward E. Curtis will speak on "The Menace of Propaganda." Professor Curtis is a graduate of Yale and is now chairman of the History Department at Wellesley where he is an extremely popular instructor. He has traveled extensively and lectures widely, particularly on conditions in Latin America.

THIMBLE CLUB ENJOYS AMERICAN AIRWAYS FILM

An American Airways film was shown at the meeting of the Thimble club in the Square and Compass club hall last Thursday afternoon by Mr. Brewster, sales representative of that company.

Refreshments followed the business session, served by: Mrs. William Ferguson, chairman of the committee, assisted by: Mrs. Earl Rutter, Mrs. Chester Johnson, Mrs. Charles Hill, Miss Grace Higgins and Mrs. Frank Buttrick.

"PROGRAM POPULARITY DETERMINED BY LETTERS"

Miss Marion Hertha Clarke, who spoke on "Radio Off the Record" at the Shawsheen Village Woman's Club Monday night, explained that the majority of the radio programs remain on the air by request or by expression of public approval. The types of programs of which the public disapproves are not long in being removed, therefore if we would like more educational or informative programs, we should request them. The sponsors determine the popularity of their programs by the letters received from the listeners.

Miss Clarke also pointed out the importance radio plays in war time. By keeping in close contact with events, the radio is able to relay the news to its public long before newspapers can be published and on sale in the streets.

Miss Arlene Lister sang three selections accompanied by Miss Dorothy Wilkinson at the piano. The selections were "Birds' Song at Eventide," "Morning," and "Valley of Laughter."

The program was announced by Mrs. A. E. Knowles, chairman of the literature committee, assisted by Mrs. Eugene V. Lovely and Mrs. Walter Tomlinson. The hostesses were Miss Ethel Anderson, Miss Florence Anderson, Miss Rhoda Anderson, Mrs. Frank Bartlett, Miss Barbara Bartlett, Mrs. John Batal, Mrs. George Best, Mrs. Harold Bowen, Mrs. Fred Brannon, Mrs. J. Albion Burt, Mrs. Edward Carey, and Mrs. Garfield S. Chase.

TO PRESENT OXYGEN TENT TO TOWN

An oxygen tent will shortly be presented to the town by the local Legion post, Stafford A. Lindsay, chairman of community service, reported at the meeting last Thursday night. Last year the post presented a resuscitator.

LOCAL LODGE BEATS AND GETS BEATEN

The last indoor baseball and bowling league tournament to be played off in Andover this year was held at the Fraternal hall last night with the Andover lodge meeting and defeating Hope Lodge of Methuen by the score of 18 to 16 in bowling. The out-of-town brothers retaliated in the baseball tournament, however, to beat the Andover "squad" 20 to 17 after a spirited ten-inning game.

The local lodge will journey to Lawrence next Tuesday evening where they will compete against Monadnock lodge.

The refreshment committee last night consisted of the following: George Brown, chairman; Charles Fettes, William Gordon, Lindsay Kinnear, Joseph Munroe, Roland Trauschke and Ralph Berry.

—William Angus of Montana is enjoying a visit with relatives in town.

DONATE $6,000 TO GENERAL HOSPITAL

Of the $66,000 already raised toward the $200,000 needed to complete the new Lawrence General hospital building fund the following donations were sponsored by Andover people: $3600 for superintendent's office on the main floor, given by Mr. and Mrs. William Kurth of Shawsheen with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sutherland and Dr. Gustave E. Kurth; and $100 for the admitting office on the ground floor, by Dr. Henry F. Dearborn in memory of Grace Dearborn.

PAST CHIEFS TO MEET

The annual general meeting of the Massachusetts associations of Past Chiefs will meet with Clan Johnston Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the lower Fraternal hall.

MEN'S CLUB NOTES

William McLay, director of the Andover Men's Club's annual minstrel show, today announced the endmen for this year's production. Left-over from last year's success will be William C. Valentine, James J. Gorrie, Jr., George Gorrie, and John Burbine, who all distinguished themselves in the art of blackface comedians and singers. George Brown, remembered for his performances in the old time Smith & Dove shows, and Edward Gill, who has taken part in many amateur productions, are two newcomers. As it has been the practice of the Andover Men's Club to show young and untested Terpsichoreans, they will present Calvin Deyerdmond and Harry Duke who will round out the cast of eight end-men. A rehearsal of the entire cast will be held this evening in the club-rooms at 7:30.

MOTHERS' CLUB NOTES

At the meeting of the Mothers' club yesterday afternoon in the Punchard high school, it was voted to hold a Valentine luncheon at the Little Red Schoolhouse next Wednesday afternoon at 1:30. Each member is requested to bring a valentine.

A beano party will be held at the home of Mrs. Percy Dole on Washington avenue, on February 20. Mrs. Peter Stuart, Mrs. Paul Simeone, Mrs. James Feeney and Mrs. Paul Schmotlach will be in charge. Mrs. Harold Cates, Mrs. Henry Albers, Mrs. Paul Simeone, Mrs. Walter Downs and Mrs. Annie P. Davis will be in charge of the beano party to be given at the home of Mrs. Priscilla Manning, February 27, March 5. Mrs. Harold Cates of North Main street will hold a whist party with Mrs. Paul Simeone, Mrs. James Feeney, and Mrs. Annie Davis on the committee.

After yesterday's business meeting, a pie social was enjoyed. Mrs. Timothy McCarthy, Mrs. Aubrey Polgreen and Mrs. Paul Schmotlach were in charge.

Abbot Academy Notes

Countess To Speak

In these days of swift travel between the countries where titles abound and this continent, it is not unusual to find a Duchess or an Earl ensconced in any hotel in any state of the Union at any time of the year, but it is an event of importance for any town where there is announced, as there is for this town on February 10, the appearance on the local platform of the Countess of Listowel. This distinguished woman, who was a world traveler and news correspondent for her native Hungary before she became the wife of the Irish Earl of Listowel, will speak in Davis Hall, Abbot academy, Saturday at 8 p. m.

There are few people more qualified to speak on the tense and changing situations of the world today. The Countess of Listowel, wife of William Frances Hare, fifth Earl of Listowel, is a slender, dark-eyed woman, mother of a delightful small daughter, Lady Deirdre Hare, and herself daughter of Raoul de Marffy Mantuano, a diplomat of the old Austro-Hungarian regime. Lady Listowel is a political writer for the "Nemzeti Ujsag," the leading Budapest Catholic daily, and for many others of the Hungarian newspapers, while she writes for London and United States papers and magazines. She was educated at the University of Budapest, and at the London School of Economics, and in 1933 became the bride of Lord Listowel. "I do not believe that the dictators really want war," states the distinguished visitor, "especially now that the democracies are ready to fight. Hitler wants a thousand things but war is not one of them. For war might mean the toppling of his own regime."

The Countess of Listowel is a forceful speaker, dainty and feminine in her appearance, but with a command of language and an understanding of the wider phases of international living, she holds the attention of men and women, for she puts facts into a plain language intelligible even to those least acquainted with the international scene.

Vesper Service

The Rev. Carl Heath Koph, of the Mount Vernon Congregational church in Boston, will speak at the Sunday vesper service in Abbot Hall at 7:30.

Friends of the school are cordially invited to attend on both of these occasions.

Sergeant Disappears At Policemen's Ball

Pleasure-seekers aplenty packed even the "peanut gallery" of the Memorial auditorium last Tuesday evening, as the "Princess of Pep," Ruth Gauthier, and her vaudeville troupe made even "old John Law" forget his "blues" at the fifteenth annual ball of the Andover Policemen's Relief association. Songs, swing, and "shinanigan" held sway at the "Night Court" session with Danny Sullivan, the M. C., aiming jokes with accuracy as unerring as the police pistol team. Sergeant Len Saunders was going to sing "Three O'Clock in the Morning," it was announced, but when Len heard that, they were still looking for him at four o'clock Wednesday morning.

Entertainment and fun were in no way lacking at this affair. Professor John Payne was musical director and he "tickled the ivories" with as much gusto and finesse as the entire cast "tickled the audience pink." Dancing followed the entertainment, with Roland Russell's Ramblers, minus Roland, having the multitude of young and old rocking to the rhythms of popular pieces. No one needed the gentle urging, "Come on, chillun, let's dance"—they did that without coaxing, and it was certainly lucky that they had the police there to straighten out the traffic "jam session."

Yes sir! The policemen's ball was sure a big success!

Is your Valentine cooling off?... Luckily February 14 rolls around once a year to make things lovely again...A pretty good procedure to follow Wednesday morning is to first consider—have you been what the politician hates to be, de-voted? or have you been letting the grass grow under your feet, becoming just one more lovelorn?...it's not a very pleasant feeling after you have been mowed down by a definitely icy glance...you might as well consider your hey-day is over...you might as well go to seed... But wait, maybe there's still a chance...Maybe if you have a big heart and give yourself a lacing (you'll promise to be much more gallant this year) maybe her withering affection will flower into romance...fanned, of course, by a beau-quet...or is it boo?...Anyway, good luck, buddie, and a Happy Valentine's Day.

Everett Collins is the Andover Grange's little man who wasn't there...Tuesday night at the jubilee everyone was looking forward to Mr. Collins' selections and Mr. Collins was looking forward to being there, too, until one of the choir members reminded him that they were singing in Wilmington that same evening...

The ice cream eating contest held at Smith & Coutts the other day revealed that one of the editors of The Phillippian is more resistant to cold than the other entries...He finished a quart of chocolate ice cream in ten minutes flat while his runner up was flat after the first pint...

Although you'd think the Phillips swimming team would be too good to get the bird, it's got two of them...in the form of one Crane who is the lead off man on the relay team and one Drake who is the anchor man...There's nothing so very unusual about a crane getting ducked but when a wading bird swims, that makes as good a story as "Garbo Smiles."

Alumni Plan Social Events

The executive committee of the Pynchard Alumni association met in the high school Monday evening to discuss plans for coming social events. From the suggestions made, it is evident that the association is planning a series of entertaining features to interchange with the dances. The members expect to meet again next Monday night to hear reports and to make more definite plans.

AS YOU LIKE IT

In many markets it is the custom to prepare a lot of cut meats the night before they are sold, and that is the way the customer gets them whether it is cut to her particular taste or not.

This is not so in our store. We consider it a real pleasure to have you ladies come into our meat cutting room and see your meats cut, not to suit us but to satisfy you. This is a real independent service store where you can get what you want just the way you want it.
